

ALEXANDRU RUSU

Alexandru Rusu is the Leader of Strategic Research in Biozoon GmbH. He holds a M.Sc. and a Ph.D degree, having extensive background in different areas of biotechnology and food research. Furthermore, from the combined experience in academia and industry he also gained a strong professional know-how in managing national and international collaborative RTD projects. He possesses a successful track record, both as a participant and as coordinator, in managing numerous European and national RTD projects.

